

CRIMINAL LAW

Professor Blaze
Fall 2007

COURSE INFORMATION

Classes

We'll meet Mondays and Wednesdays in Room 132 from 10:10 a.m. to 11:25 a.m.

Office Hours

I will be in my office (Room 280 in the Dean's Suite) every Monday and Wednesday following class. In addition, feel free to stop by any other time or schedule an appointment.

Questions

I welcome questions. I encourage you to raise questions during class so that your colleagues can benefit from the question and my responses. I am also glad to answer any questions outside of class. My email is blaze@utk.edu.

Text

The required text is Crump et al., Criminal Law: Cases, Materials, and Lawyering Strategies (LexisNexis 2005).

Grading

Your grade will be based primarily on the final examination (80%) and a mid-term (20%). Both examinations will be open book, meaning that all class materials, notes, and outlines you prepare for the course may be used during the exam..

Class participation will be used to increase or diminish the grade in cases where a student's work is on the border between grades.

Suggestions

I approach teaching as a collaborative effort between you and me. To that end, I encourage your feedback and suggestions throughout the semester.
