

Global Careers MARCH 3 & 4

Two different seminars:
Monday
6:30 PM to 8:30 PM

Tuesday
3:30 PM to 5:30 PM

UC Auditorium

The BIG Guide will be available for $40,
SAVE $19.95 over the bookstore price!

Jean-Marc Hachey
Author of the bestseller
The BIG Guide to Living and Working Overseas

Get Ready for the World: Increase Your International IQ

Learn from the author of The BIG Guide to Living and Working Overseas, Jean-Marc Hachey

GLOBAL CAREER SKILLS

Advice for Anyone Considering Going Abroad to Study, Volunteer, Intern, Teach, Travel or Work!

March 3: 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM, University Center Auditorium

Learn about international careers from best selling author Jean-Marc Hachey and his book The BIG Guide to Living and Working Overseas. Discover what skills are required to be successful overseas, long term career strategies, how to gain international experience and build an "International I.Q." Mr. Hachey will also present an overview of the international job hunting process, including the differences between an international and domestic resume. Hachey's seminars are brimming with practical tips, expert advice and humorous stories to help you go abroad and prepare for work in the new global economy.

THE INTERNATIONAL JOB SEARCH

Learn About Selling Your Skills and Writing International Resumes

March 4: 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM, University Center Auditorium

Jean-Marc Hachey will expand on his previous seminar with detailed information on international resumes and job hunting strategies. Learn the step-by-step strategies for finding international work. Discover how to target your job search and sell your international skills. Review in detail each element of the international resume. (Participants who attend the previous seminar should note that 20 minutes of this session reviews information from the previous.)

Sponsored by Career Services, a Division of Student Affairs, and
The Center for International Education.

Helping Students Understand International Careers: A Seminar for Career Counselors, Study Abroad Advisors & Faculty

Tuesday, March 4th
12:00 noon
University Center Shiloh Room

Learn about international careers from best selling author Jean-Marc Hachey and his book The BIG Guide to Living and Working Overseas. This one hour presentation discusses how to guide students interested in building an international career, how to acquire international experience and the differences between the international job search and domestic job search. Mr. Hachey also puts forth innovative ideas on how various departments on campus can work together to help students build international careers and global citizenship credentials. Any faculty or staff member with an interest in this area is invited to attend and bring a sack lunch.

Hachey is presenting two student focused seminars that all students are encouraged to attend. Learn more details on our website at: <http://career.utk.edu>

Global Career Skills: Advice for Anyone Considering Going Abroad to Study, Volunteer, Intern, Teach, Travel or Work!

March 3: 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM, University Center Auditorium

THE INTERNATIONAL JOB SEARCH: Learn About Selling Your Skills and Writing International Resumes

March 4: 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM, University Center Auditorium

Sponsored by Career Services, A Division of Student Affairs, and
The Center for International Education.