

The Transactions Journal is pleased to announce the successful completion of our Golf Tournament. We enjoyed beautiful weather and had a fun time at one of Tennessee's best public golf courses. This was one of the best fundraising years that the Golf Tournament has had!.

The Journal would like to congratulate the "Ballers" who are the 2009 Annual Golf Tournament Champions. This team consisted of James "Jay" Moneyhun (3L), Jeff Stoneking, Sam Ruth, and Michael Creath. They won the grand prize sponsored in part by Alston + Bird LLP of water bottles, golf tees, and Titleist golf balls. The grand prize also included gift cards to the Copper Cellar. The Journal would like to give a special thank you to Prof. Kuney who is going to pay for the winners' round of golf.

Second place went to "Hung Like a Jury" which was a 2L team consisting of K. Chris Collins, Ryan Desmond, Joshua H. Lee, and Thomas W. Withworth. Third place went to an all practicing attorney team of "BCSW" which consisted of Wade Boswell, Chris Cain, Keith Stewart, and John Willis.
